SR Subjects – Assignment 1 Presentation

Before submitting assignment reports, Assignment Group must present some results of the reports. Below is presentation schedule & requirements for the presentation

1. Presentation Requirements

The presentation must be in form of PowerPoint and submited to CMS contain the following informat in advacne. Below is presentation scheduling. The presentation must contain the following information

1) Objectives of the system-to-be
2) Identified stakeholders of the system-to-be and stakeholder's characteristics, stakeholder's roles in system-to-be.
3) System overview for system-to-be (context model & problem diagram)
4) The overall descriptions of the the components in the system-to-be
5) The main proposed features of software-to-be
6) Describe 1 Use-case and its scenarios between software-to-be and environment components in system-to-be
7) QoS, Architectural, and Develepment requirements samples (each category has at least 2 requirements)

2. Grading Criteria

The presentation grade will be 30% of the grade of assignment 1. It will be assessed as below.

Grade	Points	% Of Total	Description
Presentation	15	15%	The assessment points are for presentation skill and the organization of slides
Content	85	85%	Equally divide to the number of questions stated in the presentation requirements

Grade criteria

Grade	Points	Description
Very Excellent	90-100	Superior performance and exceeds presentation objectives. The superior level assumes that the student justified responses with text and other research resources. Very good answers for all questions questioned in the presentation meeting.

Excellent	80-89	Above good performance and exceeds acceptable presentation objectives. Requires the student to take a position beyond merely a literal answer for the questions, with a clearly explanation of the presentation content and methodologies
Good	65-79	Above average performance and exceeds acceptable presentation objectives. Requires the student to fully complete the required questions and requirements within the presentation and reveal good understanding the theories and the application to the assignment.
Average	50-65	Average performance and match with presentation objectives. Do the presentation and reveal understanding what the presentation have
Below Average	Below 50	Failure to meet presentation objectives. Did not answer above 50% of the questions or did not provide the appropriate answers within the specified deadline.